

CAPE BRETON UNIVERSITY

Call for Nominations Healthcare Awards of Distinction

Background

Cape Breton University is committed to championing the Island's prosperity, prioritizing initiatives in areas such as health. This award is considered one of the pathways for CBU to participate more fully in developing healthcare solutions for the Province of Nova Scotia.

The purpose of this award is to recognize the great contributions of individuals to the medical community and honour their dedication and achievements in the field of healthcare.

The awards will be presented in June of each year.

Who is eligible?

The recipients of the award can be anyone involved in the healthcare sector in some capacity including, but not limited to, physicians, nurse practitioners, administrators, volunteers, and nurses.

Nomination guidelines

Nominees are evaluated on ways in which they contribute to one or more of the areas listed below:

Builder - Contributes to healthcare system improvements. Does not have to be a healthcare provider.

Rural Engagement - Healthcare professionals who enhance the quality of life in rural communities.

Innovation - Develops methods of service provision or processes that change the way healthcare is offered in a positive way.

Champion - Advocates for positive change within the healthcare system.

Leadership - Occupies a leadership position/takes a leadership role and effects positive change within the system, or has created a positive culture within their area of responsibility.

Other categories may be considered.

How do I nominate someone for this award?

1. Complete the nomination form
(on second page - or available at cbumedcampus.ca)
2. Provide one (1) letter of nomination and two (2) additional letters, each no more than two pages, supporting the nomination based on the criteria listed above. Additional letters will not be considered.
3. The complete nomination package (nomination form, one nomination letter, and two letters of support) must be received at one time in one PDF file – not separately. Incomplete nomination packages will not be considered.
4. The package can be emailed to the address on the nomination form. The nomination form, nomination letter, and the two letters of support should be typed or written/printed legibly.
5. If more than one nomination is submitted for the same individual, only the first nomination received will be reviewed.
6. Nominations are only valid in the year they are received. Individuals can be nominated again if they are not selected to receive an award.

The deadline for nominations is 4:30 pm on Monday, April 3, 2023.
